MEMORANDUM FOR

SUBJECT : Appearance in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in the Case of United States v. [redacted] (Criminal Case [redacted])

85X1

STAT

In your appearance before the United States District Court as a witness for the Government in the prosecution of [redacted] for the theft of a radio transceiver from this Agency, it is your duty as a citizen to testify as fully and freely as your knowledge permits, concerning the loss, recovery and other matters pertaining to the property in question.

STAT

However, as you are aware, collateral matters relating to our communications operations and plans, as well as many of the duties of your office, are of a highly classified nature and may not be disclosed to the general public without appropriate authorization. In the event that you are questioned about the intended utilization of the transceiver; communications operations and plans of this Agency; or duties of your office which do not relate to the loss, recovery or other matters before the court; and you do not know the answer, you will state that you do not know. If the answer is a matter of your knowledge, you will respectfully request the permission of the court to allow you to obtain official instructions before answering the question.
